Re: ISDA Master Agreement between Lehman Brothers Special Financing Inc. ("LBSF") and Seattle Pacific University, dated as of October 16, 2000, together with Schedule, Credit Support Annex and Confirmation (the "Agreement")

Dear Mr. McMurray:

Since Seattle Pacific University ("SPU") delivered its notice designating an early termination date for the Agreement on September 18, 2009 (the "SPU termination notice"), we or SPU have been contacted and received the following correspondence from Lehman or the Derivatives Legal function for Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc. and its affiliate Lehman Brothers Special Financing Inc. (together "Lehman"):

- Letter from Satoko Koyama dated September 18, 2009 stating that the SPU termination notice "violates the Bankruptcy Code and is accordingly voidable at the election of Lehman" (the "Lehman September 18 Letter"), received by SPU on September 21, 2009.
- In response to the Lehman September 18 Letter, SPU sent a letter to you dated September 24, 2009 (the "SPU September 24 Letter", received by the Lehman mailroom at 9:39 am on September 25, 2009, signed for by Grant):
 - stating that SPU stands ready and willing to make a Termination Payment to Lehman, but requesting confirmation that the termination of the Agreement will not be voided by Lehman and that the Termination Payment will be treated as such;
 - including SPU's determination of the Termination Payment payable by SPU to Lehman in respect of the outstanding Transaction under the Agreement as of September 18, 2009 ($1,553,183.35), and detailing the Termination Payment in the attached Exhibit (the "Loss Calculation Exhibit");

Lehman Brothers
Attn.: Lock R. McMurray
October 6, 2009

- noting that SPU has made ongoing payments to Lehman during 2009 even though Lehman has not performed its obligations as Calculation Agent under the Agreement except when prompted by SPU to provide a calculation and statement; and
 - stating that SPU stands ready and willing to make its most recent regularly scheduled payment but, again, Lehman has not performed its obligations as Calculation Agent and SPU has not received a statement.
- In response to the SPU September 24 Letter:
 - On September 25, 2009, Craig Kispert, Associate Vice President of Business and Finance of SPU, received a phone call from Rie Ando (riando@Lehman.com, (646) 333-9484) requesting copies of the exhibits referenced in the Loss Calculation Exhibit;
 - On September 25, 2009, Craig Kispert responded to Rie Ando by email asking whether Lehman is interested in terminating the Agreement (notwithstanding the Lehman September 18 Letter suggesting that it is Lehman's stance that SPU was not able to terminate the swap) and asking about the relevancy of the underlying exhibits to the Loss Calculation Exhibit except in connection with a termination;
 - SPU has not received a response to this email;
 - On September 28, 2009, SPU received your letter dated September 25, 2009 (the "Lehman September 25 Letter") stating that:
 - Lehman's records indicate that no valid termination notice has been delivered under the Agreement (not referencing the SPU termination notice);
 - That Lehman has determined that the Agreement may only be terminated with mutual consent of the parties;
 - Referencing the Metavante order and attaching the transcript of Judge Peck's remarks with respect to Metavante on September 15, 2009, including Judge Peck's holding with respect to that counterparty's failure to make periodic payment, but not referencing that SPU has made its periodic payments and not acknowledging SPU's notice that Lehman has failed to perform its responsibilities as calculation agent and provide statements to SPU for its September (and now October) payments; and
 - Stating that Lehman will hold SPU accountable for damages resulting from the stay violation including damages associated with Lehman's hedging activities.
 - On September 30, 2009, I received your letter dated September 29, 2009 the "Lehman September 29 Letter") stating:
 - Again that SPU's putative termination of the Transaction under the Agreement represents a violation of the automatic stay;
 - That Lehman is working with counterparties to settle open derivatives transactions on mutually agreeable terms;

Lehman Brothers
Attn.: Lock R. McMurray
October 6, 2009

- Asking for the exhibits specified in the Loss Calculation Exhibit as well as evidence of Market Quotations sought or received, details and evidence of replacement hedges and detailed backup for SPU's expenses, but not referencing Craig Kispert's email response to Rio Ando.

We take exception to references in the Lehman September 25 Letter to the Metavante failure to make periodic payments in light of SPU's continued performance of its obligations under the Agreement even during a period in which Lehman has failed to perform its responsibilities as Calculation Agent. We again put Lehman on notice of its failure to perform as Calculation Agent under the Agreement.

In light of this correspondence (copies of which are attached), we understand that Lehman believes that the SPU termination notice was not effective to terminate the Agreement, but that Lehman may be willing to terminate the Agreement through mutual consent. SPU has already provided its Loss Calculation Exhibit. Prior to SPU's providing information over and above the Loss Calculation Exhibit please provide Lehman's proposed termination amount.

We believe it may be beneficial to schedule a call to discuss these matters. SPU is interested in determining whether it will be productive to pursue a mutually acceptable termination or whether SPU should move the court for assumption or rejection of the Agreement.

I am available for a call on either Thursday or Friday, October 8, 2009 and October 9, 2009, respectively, at the following times: between 10:00 a.m. and noon, or 1:30 and 3:00 p.m. Seattle time. Please advise regarding your availability. Thanks.

Sincerely,

Re: ISDA Master Agreement between Lehman Brothers Special Financing Inc.
("LBSF") and Seattle Pacific University, dated as of October 16, 2000, together with Schedule, Credit Support Annex and Confirmation (the "Agreement")

Dear Mr. McMurray:

We spoke Monday morning regarding the Agreement between Seattle Pacific University and Lehman Brothers Special Financing Inc. As we discussed, you were going to determine whether Lehman is willing to propose a termination amount that would be acceptable to Lehman in connection with a mutual termination of the Agreement. You asked whether the University could provide the exhibits specified in the Loss Calculation Exhibit attached to the University's letter to you dated September 24, 2009. We have consulted with our client, and the University is willing to provide the supporting exhibits specified in the Loss Calculation Exhibit if Lehman will provide its proposed termination amount, together with its supporting calculations.

Please let us know if you are willing to proceed to exchange such documentation prior to the close of next week. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Stacy Cawshaw-Lewis

1 that it has been presented and will make some judgments as to 2 the identity of the mediators in consultation with counsel for 3 the debtors and for the creditors' committee who have been so 4 active in developing these procedures.

5 I recognize that a lot of people who are in court at 6 this moment are here for the ADR procedures, and I'm going to 7 give people who want to leave an opportunity to leave. I'm 8 also going to give everybody an opportunity for a break. But 9 because of the congestion of this docket, I think I'm going to 10 go until 1 o'clock. So let's take a break for ten minutes, and 11 then resume, and then go until 1 o'clock and then break for 12 lunch. We're adjourned until then.

13 MR. GRUENBERGER: Thank you, Your Honor.

14 (Recess from 12:12 p.m. to 12:28 p.m.)

15 THE COURT: Be seated please. Number 11, Metavante.

16 MR. SLACK: Your Honor, Richard Slack from Weil, 17 Gotshal for the debtors. We're here on the debtors' motion to 18 compel performance of Metavante Corporation. As Your Honor 19 knows, two months ago we had argument, after fully briefing the 20 issue. Your Honor is in receipt of letters from both 21 Metavante's counsel and from the debtors, which I think 22 provides the status of where we are in terms of discussions, 23 which is, essentially, that the parties have not had 24 substantial discussions, as the letters which are docketed 25 state.

1 The debtors were requested to make a proposal to 2 resolve it, which we did. We have not received a proposal from 3 Metavante in the two months since the hearing, and Metavante 4 has not responded to our proposal that we've made.

5 Your Honor has mentioned Metavante a couple of times
6 today, and so Your Honor may have a plan for the conference, 7 but it is the debtors' position that this matter should be 8 considered and decided, at the Court's discretion, obviously.

9 THE COURT: Understood. I'm ready to rule today.

10 MR. ARNOLD: May it please the Court, mindful of that 11 comment, I want you to know why we wrote the letter, so that 12 you have in mind that parties do take into account the risks of 13 not settling, and you were quite clear at the hearing on July 14 14th that there was an opportunity for the parties to consider 15 resolving this matter.

16 For the Court's information, neither Lehman nor its 17 counsel have been obdurate, ornery, or in any fashion
18 unprofessional. Our dealings have been quite, to the contrary, 19 exceptional throughout the history of our relationships. I 20 reached out to counsel for the debtors to explain how it is 21 that an impending transaction which will close on October 1st 22 would, in my judgment, have a favorable impact on the 23 likelihood of this matter resolving consensually. That was the 24 singular purpose for us writing the letter to the Court. We 25 are not here today to reargue the motion. The Court heard

1 extensive oral argument. It has been well briefed. The issues
2 have come up again in, frankly, in other instances and motions
3 and adversary proceedings. I wanted the Court to know that it 4 was not by design, neglect or deliberately ignoring your 5 comments on July 14th that the settlement has not proceeded
6 further than it has. About a week ago we received a settlement 7 proposal. I am authorized to state by both Fidelity and 8 Metavante that post-closing of the merged entity we expect to, 9 and intend to, and will make a settlement proposal, but we're 10 also mindful that it hasn't been settled, and if it is the 11 Court's desire to rule on the matter today, we govern ourselves
12 accordingly. I just wanted the Court to know what I've done 13 since July 14th to try to move this matter on.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you for that update.

15 MR. ARNOLD: Thank you, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: The Metavante matter consumed the better 17 part of an afternoon's oral argument. My best recollection is 18 that we specially listed it on the afternoon before the July 19 omnibus hearing. Candidly, I don't recall why it was specially 20 listed all by itself, but it's just as well that it happened, 21 because it took a lot of time.

22 It's correct that I encouraged the parties to attempt 23 to resolve this consensually, and I appreciate the fact that 24 large enterprises, particularly those that are involved in 25 major transactions in which acquisitions are literally weeks

1 away from being consummated, may be distracted or may have 2 other priorities. But I also believe that when I suggested
3 that this be listed for the September 15th omnibus hearing it 4 was with the notion that, in effect, time would be up.

5 I'm also mindful of the fact that on today's calendar
6 a matter very similar to this, item 6, has been consensually
7 resolved, involving the payment of fifty percent more dollars 8 to the debtors than are at issue in this current dispute.

9 I am prepared to rule and will do so now. Recognize 10 that what I'm about to do will take some time and will probably 11 take us to the lunch hour. If there is anyone here who doesn't 12 want to hear the ruling in this case I'd like you to be free to 13 both leave, because I won't be offended, or, if at some point 14 during my rendition of this ruling you say to yourself this is 15 something I don't need to hear, you're also free to leave at 16 that point.

17 LBSF requests that the Court compel Metavante to 18 perform its obligations under that certain 1992 ISDA Master
19 Agreement dated as of November 20, 2007, defined as the "Master 20 Agreement". And that certain trade confirmation dated December 21 4, 2007, defined as the "Confirmation", and together with the 22 Master Agreement, the "Agreement".

23 The Master Agreement provides the basic terms of the 24 parties' contractual relationship and contemplates being 25 supplemented by trade confirmations that provide the economic

1 terms of the specific transactions agreed to by the parties.

2 Under the Master Agreement, Metavante and LBSF entered into an 3 interest rate swap transaction, the terms of which were 4 documented pursuant to the Confirmation.

5 LBHI is a credit support provider for LBSF's payment
6 obligations under the Agreement.

7 Due to declining interest rates the value of LBSF's
8 position under the Agreement has increased. As of May 2009,
9 under the payment terms of the Agreement, Metavante owed LBSF
10 in excess of 6 million dollars, representing quarterly payments
11 due November, 2008, February, 2009 and May, 2009, plus default 12 interest in excess of 300,000 dollars.

13 It is possible that due to current market conditions 14 and to the quarterly payment schedule prescribed by the 15 Agreement the amounts that Metavante owes to LBSF as of today 16 are even higher than those stated in the motion. Metavante has 17 refused to make any payments to LBSF. In fact, it has refused
18 to perform its obligations under the Agreement, as of November 19 3, 2008. Instead, Metavante claims that LBSF and LBHI, via the 20 filing of their respective Chapter 11 cases, each caused an 21 event of default under the Agreement.

22 Metavante argues that due to such events of default it
23 has the right, but not the obligation, under the safe harbor
24 provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, to terminate all outstanding 25 derivative transactions under the Agreement. Metavante also

1 maintains that it is not otherwise required to perform under 2 the Agreement.

3 The parties presented their arguments to the Court at 4 a hearing held on July 14, 2009. Notably at the hearing 5 counsel to Metavante stated that, quote, "the opportunity to 6 settle the matter", is a possibility. The reference in the 7 transcript is page 58, lines 18 to 19. The Court took the 8 matter under advisement and suggested that it be calendared for 9 the September 15, 2009 omnibus hearing for purposes of either a 10 bench ruling or a status conference on any progress the parties 11 may have made towards a resolution.

12 I want to make clear that I am proceeding with this 13 ruling because I view the letter described by counsel for 14 Metavante, which talked about a possible settlement 15 counterproposal occurring sometime after the closing of a 16 merger on October 1, as being an insufficient commitment to a 17 timely settlement.

18 On September 14, 2009 the Court received letters from 19 counsel to each of the parties. Counsel to Metavante requests 20 an adjournment to October 14. Counsel states that an 21 adjournment will facilitate the parties' settlement
22 negotiations but explains that Metavante may not make a 23 counterproposal to LBSF's September 5, 2009 settlement proposal
24 until after the proposed October 1, 2009 closing of a merger.
25 Counsel also suggests that an adjournment will allow the Court

1 to put the motion on the same track as two other motions
2 currently pending before the Court. Which motions, counsel
3 claims, raise similar issues to the motion? Counsel to LBSF
4 and LBHI maintain that inasmuch as Metavante has done nothing
5 since July 14, 2009 to settle this matter other than asking
6 LBSF and LBHI to make a settlement proposal, the parties are no 7 closer to settlement than they were at the hearing, and,
8 therefore, the status conference should go forward as planned.

9 While each of the matters reference by counsel to 10 Metavante may have overlapping issues with those presented in 11 the current dispute, each matter involves its own distinct set 12 of facts. Moreover, each of the two referenced matters is in 13 its infancy. No response has been filed in either one, which 14 may further delay resolution here.

15 This is a dispute that has been fully briefed and 16 argued and is ripe for determination. Moreover, I note that 17 the settlement that was achieved with MEG Energy that was 18 referenced this morning indicates that parties who are willing 19 to settle can, and do.

20 Under the Agreement LBSF is obligated to pay the 21 floating three month USD LIBOR BBA interest rate on a notional
22 amount of 600 million dollars, which notional amount declines 23 over time, beginning in May, 2010. Metavante, in turn, is 24 obligated to pay a fixed interest rate, 3.865 percent, on the 25 notional amount. The Agreement is set to expire on February 1,

1 2012. The Agreement defines event of default to include the 2 bankruptcy of any party or credit support provider. Under the 3 terms of the Agreement, upon an event of default the non-4 defaulting party may designate an early termination date. Upon 5 termination a final payment is calculated and paid in order to 6 put the parties into the same economic position as if the 7 termination had not occurred.

8 In the instant case Metavante has refused to perform 9 under the Agreement on account of the event of default that has 10 occurred, and is continuing, on account of the bankruptcies of 11 LBSF and LBHI. Metavante has not, however, attempted to 12 terminate the Agreement. Instead, Metavante entered into a 13 replacement hedge covering the period from November 3, 2008
14 through February 1, 2010.

15 LBSF and LBHI argue that the Agreement is an executory
16 contract because material performance, specifically payment 17 obligations, remain due by both LBSF and Metavante. Under 18 Bankruptcy Code Section 365(a) a debtor in possession may, 19 "subject to the court's approval, assume or reject any 20 executory contract". The case law makes clear, however, that 21 while a debtor determines whether to assume or reject an 22 executory contract the counterparty to such contract must 23 continue to perform.

24 LBSF and LBHI further argue that the safe harbor
25 provisions do not excuse Metavante's failure to perform.

1 Indeed, the safe harbor provisions permit qualifying non-debtor
2 counterparties to derivative contracts to exercise certain 3 limited contractual rights triggered by, among other things, a 4 Chapter 11 filing. They're available, however, only to the 5 extent that a counterparty seeks to one, liquidate, terminate 6 or accelerate its contracts or two, net out its positions. All 7 other uses of ipso facto provisions remain unenforceable under 8 the Bankruptcy Code.

9 Notably, Metavante does not dispute that it has failed 10 to perform under the Agreement. Instead, Metavante argues that 11 the occurrence of an event of default under the Agreement gives 12 rise to its right, as the non-defaulting party, to terminate 13 under the safe harbor provisions. According to Metavante the 14 occurrence of an event of default does not, however, create the 15 obligation for it to terminate under the safe harbor
16 provisions. Metavante emphasizes the term, quote, "condition 17 precedent" set forth in Sections 2(a), 1 and 3 of the 18 Agreement, which subject payment obligations to the condition
19 precedent that no event of default with respect to the party 20 has occurred and is continuing.

21 Metavante argues that under New York State contract 22 law a failure of a condition precedent excuses a party's 23 obligation to perform. Metavante states that its unequivocal 24 right to suspend payments until the termination of the 25 Agreement is fundamental to the manner in which swap parties

1 government themselves. Metavante takes issue with LBSF and 2 LBHI in asking the Court to treat the Agreement like a garden
3 variety executory contract, arguing that it cannot be compelled 4 to pay because LBSF and LBHI cannot provide the essential item
5 of value Metavante bargained for, namely an effective 6 counterparty.

7 Metavante further argues on information and belief
8 that LBSF and LBHI also are in default under certain 9 unspecified indebtedness that allegedly may have created a 10 cross default under the Agreement, asserting, as a result, an 11 alleged need to engage in the discovery process.

12 It is clear that the filing of bankruptcy petitions by 13 LBHI and LBSF constitute events of default under the Agreement.
14 Specifically, Section 5(a)(vii) of the Agreement provides that 15 it shall constitute an event of default should a party to the 16 Agreement or any credit support provider of such party 17 institute a proceeding seeking a judgment of insolvency or 18 bankruptcy, or any other relief under any bankruptcy insolvency 19 law or similar law affecting creditors' rights.

20 Section 2(a)(i) and 3 of the Agreement, in turn,
21 subject payment obligations to the condition precedent that no
22 event of default with respect to the other party has occurred
23 and is continuing. It is also clear, however, that the safe 24 harbor provisions, primarily Bankruptcy Code Sections 560 and 25 561, protect a non-defaulting swap counterparty's contractual

1 rights solely to liquidate, terminate or accelerate one or more 2 swap agreements because of a condition of the kind specified in 3 Section 365(e)(1), or to "offset or net out any termination 4 values or payment amounts arising under or in connection with 5 the termination, liquidation or acceleration of one or more 6 swap agreements". That language comes from Section 560.

7 In the instant matter Metavante has attempted neither 8 to liquidate, terminate or accelerate the Agreement, nor to 9 offset or net out its position as a result of the events of 10 default caused by the filing of bankruptcy petitions by LBHI
11 and LBSF. Metavante simply is withholding performance, relying 12 on the conditions precedent language in Sections 2(a)(i) and 13 (iii) under the Agreement.

14 The question presented in this matter and the issue 15 that was argued by the parties at the hearing is whether 16 Metavante's withholding of performance is permitted, either 17 under the safe harbor provisions or under terms of the 18 Agreement itself. It is not.

19 Although complicated at its core the Agreement is, in 20 fact, a garden variety executory contract, one for which there 21 remains something still to be done on both sides. Each party
22 to the Agreement still is obligated to make quarterly payments
23 based on a floating or fixed interest rate of a notional 24 amount, it being understood that the net obligor actually makes 25 a payment after the parties respective positions are calculated

1 on a quarterly basis, in February, May, August and November of 2 each calendar year.

3 Under relevant case law it is clear that while an un-4 assumed executory contract is not enforceable against a debtor,
5 see NLRB v. Bildisco & Bildisco, 465 US 513 at 531, such a 6 contract is enforceable by a debtor against the counterparty.
7 See McLean Industries, Inc. v. Medical Laboratory Automation, 8 Inc., 96 B.R. 440 at 449 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1989). Metavante 9 relies on In re Lucre, Inc., 339 BR 648 (WD Mich.) for the 10 proposition that a debtor's uncured pre-petition breach of its 11 executory contract, here the event of default caused by the 12 bankruptcy filings of LBHI and LBSF, will, in and of itself, 13 justify continued nonperformance by the non-debtor
14 counterparty, and mere commencement of bankruptcy proceedings 15 and the imposition of the automatic stay does not empower the 16 debtor to compel performance from a non-debtor party.

17 The Court rejects the Lucre decision as nonbinding and 18 non-persuasive. While Metavante's argument for the events of 19 default caused by the bankruptcy filings of LBHI and LBSF do 20 create an obligation for it to terminate the Agreement under 21 the safe harbor provisions, that's a tenable argument. Its 22 conduct of riding the market for the period of one year, while 23 taking no action whatsoever, is simply unacceptable and 24 contrary to the spirit of these provisions of the Bankruptcy 25 Code.

1 First, inasmuch as the Bankruptcy Code trumps any 2 state law excuse of nonperformance, Metavante's reliance on New 3 York contract law is misplaced. Moreover, legislative history
4 evidences Congress's intent to allow for the prompt closing out 5 or liquidation of open accounts upon the commencement of a 6 bankruptcy case. Citation is to the Congressional history of 7 this, H.R. Rep. 97-420 at 1 (1982), as well as its stated 8 rationale that the immediate termination for default and the 9 netting provisions are critical aspects of swap transactions 10 and are necessary for the protection of all parties in light of 11 the potential for rapid changes in the financial markets.
12 Citation to the Senate Report number 101-285 at 1 (1990).

13 The safe harbor provisions specifically permit
14 termination solely, quote, "because of a condition of the kind 15 specified in Section 365(e)(1) that is the insolvency or 16 financial condition of the debtor and the commencement of a 17 bankruptcy case. See also In re Enron Corp., 2005. WL 3874285,
18 at *4, Judge Gonzalez's case, 2005. Noting that a 19 counterparty's action under the safe harbor provisions must be 20 made fairly contemporaneously with the bankruptcy filing, less 21 the contract be rendered just another ordinary executory 22 contract.

23 The Court finds that Metavante's window to act 24 promptly under the safe harbor provisions has passed, and while 25 it may not have had the obligation to terminate immediately

1 upon the filing of LBHI or LBSF, its failure to do so, at this 2 juncture, constitutes a waiver of that right at this point.

3 Metavante's references to defaults under certain
4 unspecified indebtedness that allegedly may have created a
5 cross default under the Agreement are of no moment. First,
6 Metavante failed to set forth the basis, either in its papers
7 or at the hearing, for its information and belief that such a 8 default may have occurred. Its assertion that such a default 9 may have occurred indicates that Metavante is not aware of any 10 such default, and, therefore, did not rely on that default in 11 its refusal to perform under the Agreement or lacks knowledge 12 of what that default may be.

13 Additionally, the argument that LBSF or LBHI may have 14 defaulted under other specified indebtedness, as that term is 15 defined in the Agreement, relies upon the financial condition 16 of bankruptcy debtors to withhold performance. That is also 17 unenforceable as an ipso facto clause that may not be enforced
18 under the Bankruptcy Code Section 365(e)(1)(A).

19 LBSF and LBHI are entitled to continued receipt of 20 payments under the Agreement. Metavante's attempts to control 21 LBSF's right to receive payment under the Agreement constitute, 22 in effect, an attempt to control property of the estate. See 23 In re Enron Corp., 300 B.R. 201 at 212 (S.D.N.Y. 2003), 24 recognizing that contract rights are property of the estate and 25 that therefore those rights are protected by the automated

1 stay.

2 This is a violation of the automatic stay imposed by 3 Code Section 362. Accordingly, for the reasons set forth in 4 LBSF's and LBHI's papers, for the reasons stated on the record
5 at the hearing and for the reasons stated on the record today,
6 pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Sections 105(a), 362 and 365, 7 Metavante is directed to perform under the Agreement until such 8 time as LBSF and LBHI determine whether to assume or reject.
9 That's the ruling of the Court.

10 MR. KRASNOW: Good afternoon, Your Honor. Richard 11 Krasnow, Weil, Gotshal & Manges, for the Chapter 11 debtors.
12 We are close to the end of this morning's agenda, but not quite 13 there as yet. The next item, Your Honor, is number 12. It is 14 the motion of DnB Nor Bank described in the agenda. Your 15 Honor, that matter has been fully submitted to the Court, fully 16 briefed, arguments held on November 5th, and today is the 17 scheduled status conference.

18 THE COURT: Okay. I'm ready to rule on that, but 19 given the hour I'm not going to take the time to do that now.
20 But we'll issue a short memorandum in due course. So as to not 21 create any undue suspense for those parties who are here in 22 connection with the DnB Nor matter, I am deciding that in favor
23 of the debtors and against DnB Nor, denying DnB Nor's motion
24 for allowance of an administrative expense claim, substantially 25 for the reasons set forth in the committee's papers.
